Answer:

Yes. Under the Criminal Code of Canada, a security guard can perform a citizen's arrest if they have reasonable grounds to believe that a person has committed a criminal offence. However, they must do so within the scope of their authority, using only reasonable force, and promptly turn the suspect over to police. Security guards are not police officers and do not have the authority to conduct arrests beyond citizen's arrest provisions.

Explanation:

This question underscores the importance of understanding the limits of security personnel authority. While they have certain powers to detain and arrest under specific circumstances, overstepping legal boundaries can lead to liability issues.

Question 2: Use of Force

- B) Applying a firm grip to prevent a person from fleeing
- C) Using physical force after verbal warnings have failed to de-escalate a situation
- D) Striking a suspect in the face to subdue them

Answer: D) Striking a suspect in the face to subdue them

Explanation:

Physical force must be proportional and justified, used only to the extent necessary. Striking someone in the face without immediate threat or necessity is considered excessive and potentially assault. Security officers must always prioritize de-escalation and resort to physical force only when absolutely necessary and within legal limits.

Question 3: Ethical Responsibilities

Q: Which statement best reflects an ethical approach to security work?

- A) Prioritizing company profits over safety
- B) Treating all individuals with respect and fairness
